

Tom Jackson
Principal, EY - Financial Services Advisory

After beginning his career in the assurance practice of Arthur Andersen, Tom has spent the majority of his career in real estate and banking, and joined EY after spending several years at Bank of America. Tom leads EY's Capital Management practice in the US and is primarily focused on large and complex financial institutions. His charitable interests include the Leukemia and Lymphoma Society, United Way of Central Carolinas, Salvation Army Center of Hope Shelter, Human Coalition, Mosaic Style with Love, and Bright Blessings. Tom grew up in Florida and has a BBA in Business Administration from Stetson University. His family of six has gladly called Charlotte home for over 10 years.